

Erased

Kyla La Grange

Oh
Oh Oh
Oh Oh
Oh Oh

It all came down so cold
erase my heart
erase the hole
and now they get so old
to stay the last one
to break the hold

so here I am waiting for you to agree there is something in them that you don't see in me I bury myself with the hands that I held at night I wake shaking with noone to tell

I see all these faces I hear what you've heard but I'm choked by the heartbeats that weigh down this world they chase me down alleys they claw at my skin I try to say no but they always get in

erase my heart
to break the hold

oh oh oh oh oh ooh
ohoho ohohoho
oh oh oh oh oh ooh
ohohoho
