

Brokenhearted

Kyle Park

After four long nights of staying up waitin'
I turned out the lights and gave up hope
It doesn't sound wrong to say I had it comin'
I knew all along I was never in the runnin'
I go to the phone but who am I kiddin'
I'm all alone and you're with someone else
So why would you call?
When you have what you wanted
And I'm still brokenhearted

After eight straight nights of doing next to nothin'
I thought I just might just go steppin' out
But there's no way I could get somethin' started
While I'm still brokenhearted
And I can't find a reason
You're everything that I don't believe in
But some how I can't let go
Oh you've got me brokenhearted

Oh after 12 dead nights its time to start movin'
I turned out the lights, go out on the town
And who do I see there sitting at a table
Little miss heart breaker ready and able
I'd say hello but who am I kiddin'
I'm all alone, you're with someone else
I guess it makes sense for you to get started
While I'm still broken hearted
And I can't find a reason
You're everything that I don't believe in
But some how I can't let go
Oh you've got me brokenhearted
And I might not make it
Another night alone I can't take it
I don't know if I can let go
Girl you've got me broken, broken hearted
