

I Love Her For a Million Reasons

Kyle Park

I've never been a man who's lucky in love
Oh but lucky for me
I've got a little lady with a whole lot of money
She's a poor boy's dream
Now I'm not looking for a body to hold
I'm just a miner for a heart of gold

I found a woman who's got more dollars than sense
Put a ring on her finger and hoped for the best
She may not be the one
But I love her for a million reasons

I see ruby red lips and diamonds in her eyes
She's money to me
Everybody knows that you can't buy love
But that don't mean that it's free
'Cause being with her is a job, all right
But I'll never have to work another day in my life

I found a woman who's got more dollars than sense
Put a ring on her finger and hoped for the best
She may not be the one
But I love her for a million reasons
I love her for a million reasons

She's never gonna be like Sandra Dee
But she has what it takes to Rockefeller like me

I found a woman who's got more dollars than sense
Put a ring on her finger and hoped for the best
She may not be the one
But I love her you know, for a million

I found a woman who's got more dollars than sense
Put a ring on her finger and hoped for the best
She may not be the one
But I love her for a million reasons
I love her for a million reasons
I love her for a million reasons
