

Mistakes I'll Regret

Kyle Park

I'm a grown man but I'm not old yet
And only time will help me forget
Some things that I've said & mistakes I'll regret

When I was younger and much wilder
A rebel child a true teenage tiger
I'd roll threw town like I was on fire
And mistakes I'll regret I'll look back And I'll smile

I'll learn from my mistakes with each different choice I'll make
They say "What goes around, comes around again"
I curse the sun & moon all the while I never knew
Everything that I go threw makes me who I am

I've seen hard times & been on my knees
Where I've admitted defeat by my enemies
I've been knocked down and I've been burned by the best

But the fights I've never faced
Are the only mistakes I'll regret

I'll learn from my mistakes with each different choice I make
They say "What goes around, comes around again"
I curse the sun & moon all the while I never knew
Everything that I go threw makes me who I am

I'm a grown man but I'm not old yet
And only time will help me forget
Some things that I've said & mistakes I'll regret
