

The Heart of You

Kyle Park

I'm reaching out on a limb
High above it all
Never scared of where I'll land if I fall
I don't need to look down
'Cause I've already found where I'm falling to.
."The Heart of You"

Just as long as it is thin I'll walk the fine line
Of being nervous but steady the whole time
My hands shake like water, but my voice is stronger
When I ask you if I can hold on to. "The Heart of You"

I've never felt this before
I've never fallen in love
You're everything and more,
That I've been dreaming of

I don't know the moves I should make
Or all the things I should say and do
But I'll make it through if I can hold onto "The Heart of You"

I feel just like a kid again, running straight into the wind
Full speed ahead to somewhere I haven't been
I don't need to go slow
'Cause I already know where I'm running to, out of the clear blue...
"The Heart of You"

I've never felt this before
I've never fallen in love
You're everything and more,
That I've been dreaming of

I don't know the moves I should make
Or all the things I should say and do
But I'll make it through if I can hold onto "The Heart of You"

Oh!. I've never felt this before
I've never fallen in love
You're everything and more,
That I've been dreaming of

Oh!. I don't know the moves I should make
Or all the things I should say and do
But I'll make it through if I can hold onto "The Heart of You"

Ewww!. "The Heart of you"
