

You Make Me Believe

Kyle Park

I've always been a man of my word
I can hold my own against the winds of change
I've made mistakes and lord I've done somethings
That I sure regret but I'd do them all the same
'Cause if the second chance is a lesson learned
And now I'm a better man
I haven't always been this way but now I understand

You make me believe
Oh you make me believe

There was a time I thought I was king of this town
Like I knew more then than I do now
But I've slowed down to make more of my time
There's so many ways I can spend my days
Running around and staying out late
And leaving one more heart out on the line
But you believe in me when I can't even see the good inside
And I don't make you promises that turn out to be lies

You make me believe
Oh you make me believe

Truth be told I don't wanna to grow old living life day by day
All I need is you to lead me on this walk of faith

You make me believe
Oh you make me believe
Oh now you make me believe
Oh you make me believe
