

Safe With Me

Kyler England

You haven't been yourself lately
I can tell that there's something on your mind
I'm afraid that your heart is breaking
Torn apart by the demons that you hide
Oh but if it takes all night
I will be right by your side

I know you don't want to talk about it
Whatever it is you're going through
But I'm here for you
I'm here for you
If there's something inside that weighs you down
And you need someone to tell it to
Well I'm here for you
I'm here for you
Your secrets safe with me
Oh your secrets safe with me

Sometimes I wish you would scream and yell
But you keep it all under lock and key
I know you better than you know yourself
Oh after all this time you can't fool me
Oh and if it takes all night
I will be right by your side

Cause I know you don't want to talk about it
Whatever it is you're going through
But I'm here for you
I'm here for you
If there's something inside that weighs you down
And you need someone to tell it to
Well I'm here for you
I'm here for you
Your secrets safe with me

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Oh and if it takes all night
I will be right by your side

Cause I know you don't want to talk about it
Whatever it is you're going through
But I'm here for you
I'm here for you
When there's something inside that weighs you down
And you need someone to tell it to
Well I'm here for you
I'm here for you

Oh your secrets safe with me

Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
(Your secrets safe)
Oh oh oh oh
(Safe with me)
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
(Your secrets safe)
Oh oh oh oh
(Safe with me)
(Safe with me)
