

Mr. Integrity

L7

stranded in the streets of san francisco a rust car pulled along side of me i looked behind the wheel and i started to squeal an idol's face was staring at me don't preach to me
Mr. integrity
sittin' shotgun,
out of my brain
our muffler draggin'
through the art ghettos stepped on the gas
gums started to flap
punk rock manifestoes
spittin', fumin',
streets are filled with so much glass that i wanted to break eyes spinnin' 'round as my feet shook the ground like the san francisco earthquake
don't preach to me
Mr.. integrity
don't preach to me
Mr. integrity
i'm not the enemy
please don't preach to me
Mr. integrity
don't preach to me
Mr.. integrity
i'm not the enemy-- no
please don't preach to me
Mr.. integrity
