

Where Heaven Ends

LAB

Maybe I see too far, where heaven's ending
So I can never feel alive
Now I have come this far, here heaven's ending
I'm trying not to stay alive,
'cause life is for the weak
I'm finally here, where heaven may end,

There's nothing in here that I want - now heaven may end
I just have stayed too long, now I am ending
I'm trying to not to say a thing
'cause wining's for the weak
I'm finally here, where heaven may end,
There's nothing in me that I want - now heaven may finally end

Finally here, where heaven may end,
There's nothing behind me I want - now heaven may end
I'm finally here, embracing my end,
There's nothing in me that I want - now heaven may finally end!
... This is where heaven ends...
