

Razor Wire Noose

Labyrinthe

I bashed your face in with a shovel
Your vision's crushed in their collapsed eye sockets
Your lifeless body convulses in agony
My hands are trembling with excitement
I'm not content with your misery

Salvation will go unanswered - No one will help you Your worthless god doesn't hear your cries Just save your fucking breath
The noose will rip your throat to shreds wailing your torso - attached from my fender The pavement enthroned as your judge and jury decapitation is imminent

decapitation is imminent
Your severed body will twitch to the rhythm of death's song the blades pierce thru your blackened skin slicing away at your muscles

The trapezius tendon provides a challenges Barbed tapes constructs the execution

You're just a bag of bones, tumbling down the highway, until s omeone has to ID your teeth
You're just a bag of bones, tumbling down the highway, until s omeone has
to ID your teeth

I am the pure and I will strike you down

You are all filthy you are disgusting to me
You are all filthy you are disgusting to me
