

A million Miles

Lacrimas Profundere

I don't feel now, where I belong
I don't see how I am alive
I cannot find a place
I cannot find my place
To stay

I breathe my life away
To make you wanna say
Believe me, Believe me
I breathe my life in ways
That I don't mind
If you're okay
Believe me, believe me

I am here now, searching for life
I don't care how, your love is gone
A million steps to stay
A million miles away
From me
