

I Knew and Will Forever Know

Lacrimas Profundere

So hear what grief is

I live and die now
And I cannot think
I let you endlessly burn in my head
You swiped my soul
Away

You didn't feel what I felt
Forever I know
Let me into your heart
No nothing will heal the truth
And I always Knew
That you will never care

And what we become
Is only a glimpse
I let you endlessly bleed in my chest
You took my hope

I knew and will forever know
I knew and will forever know
I knew and will forever know
I knew and will forever know
I knew and will forever know
