

Guilty Love

Ladyhawke

Think I've got a hangover from one sip of wine
Stillness in the feeling from my knees down at times
Who's it for? 'Cause it isn't for me

And every time I pray, I just pray to be free
Pray to be free
Every time I pray, I just pray to be free

Guilty love, guilty love
No one has to play for the string but the skies above
Guilty love, guilty love
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up

Trying to find a reason for the blood in the Seine
Nothing makes it better, make a struggle within
Why do I care? 'Cause you don't care for me

And every time I pray, I just pray to be free
Pray to be free
Every time I pray, I just pray to be free

Guilty love, guilty love
No one has to play for the string but the skies above
Guilty love, guilty love
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up

I confess I feel it too
The give when I'm alone with you
I will be the first to say
I'm a believer in a different way

Guilty love, guilty love
No one has to play for the string but the skies above
Guilty love, guilty love
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up
You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up

You're my new religion and I'm never gonna give you up
