

Mission Unaccomplished

Lagwagon

Rainy day I'm counting sheep in may woke up dreaming of the sun and the you could have done mid-life lent I've come here to repent in a time-lapse document meaningful as when we met through the laugh-track I'm still wailing for you mission accomplished

Hey man I'm alive I hope they don't mind I changed my mind Tumble down white hills in blue background even in this dream sequence you won't explain nor confess

Mission unaccomplished still out here
