

Angioplast

Lake Street Dive

I fell in love with an angioplast
Blowin' in my insides, lettin' things pass
He doesn't know just how long it will last
But I finally feel my wall startin' to crack

'Cause everyone feels it sometimes
And everyone needs it if you wanna stay alive

I can't get enough of my angioplast
'Cause he knows how to make me flow so easy and fast
From the inside of his hospital mess
He whispers, "Baby, all you gotta is relax"

'Cause everyone feels it sometimes
And everyone needs it if you wanna stay alive

Now I finally feel I want to survive
As long as I long for you by my side

We let it go with a violent blast
Deep in my I feel the power of the [?] runnin' fast
As it pulled out my whole memory flashed
But I'd never trade this moment for all my past

Yeah everyone needs it sometimes
And everyone knows this, no guarantee that you'll survive
Now I finally I'm ready to die
As long as I long for you by my side
