

I Don't Really See You Anymore

Lake Street Dive

I don't really see you anymore
I don't really see you anymore
You used to wait for me outside your door
Now I don't really see you anymore.

I don't really see you anymore
I don't really see you anymore
You used to beg for me from on your floor
Now I don't really see you anymore.

I don't really have that much to say
I don't really have that much to say
But it would still be nice to see you someday even though I wouldn't have that much to say it would still be nice to see you someday.
