

Nobody's Stopping You Now

Lake Street Dive

Lay down girl, the summer's coming on
Take off your makeup and take off your shoes
Trade in a dress for something oversized and let your mind go wherever you choose

Don't try to be a woman anymore
Nobody's taught you how Skin your knees and throw punches in the air
Nobody's stopping you now
It's okay to step away from the crowd
Nobody's stopping you now

You're on the cusp of an obsession
Time is not on your side
All winter trying for perfection
But somehow you're never satisfied
And that hunger'll last you for a lifetime
Until you learn how to set it down
Sip the nectar from the honeysuckle bush
'Cause nobody's stopping you now

It's okay to let the real you out
Nobody's stopping you now
It's okay to let the real you out
Nobody's stopping you now
Nobody's stopping you now

Lay down girl and rest your weary head
I know you'll make it through somehow
Dip your toes down deep into the riverbed
'Cause nobody's stopping you now

It's okay to say it right out loud
Nobody's stopping you now

(Nobody's stopping you now)
It's okay to sing it right out loud
(Nobody's stopping you now
Nobody's stopping you now)
Nobody's stopping you now
(Nobody's stopping you now)
Nobody's stopping you now
(Nobody's stopping you now
Nobody's stopping)
