

Sarah

Lake Street Dive

This is the last time I will talk about you
I will say your name, I will play your game
Sarah, you can be sure

This is the first time no one gives in to you
No one hides their shame, no one holds a flame
Sarah, never before

You're foolish and sad, you're gorgeous and mad
Take a drag on that last cigarette
You're wounded and far in the land of the stars
And it breaks my heart to see you like that

So this is the one time that I give you the news
Not a song and dance, not a second chance
Sarah, never one more (Ooh)
