

Guns And Bells

Lakeside X

You can tell me
I'm the worst man
But you can't hold it
It's out of control now

I know it destroys me
I know it controls me
But it's that swamp I'm in
The one I feel right being in

And I will swill it to the bottom
Though I know it brings me gall
It breaks me down I feel so low
But so alive

You'll be hearing just guns and bells
You'll be feeling all the pain sets you free
But you'll never be free
Never gonna free
Never gonna free from the rhytm of
Your heartache

You know it's a sin
But I feel wealthy
By the wealth of sin
Then no on can help me

Once you taste her
When you feel her
One second of way there
And years and years of way back

And I searched beauty in a junk
I felt rainbow in this crap
The world I've seen was blue and green
And I felt so high

You'll be hearing just guns and bells
You'll be feeling all the pain sets you free
But you'll never be free
Never gonna free
Never gonna free from the rhytm of
Your heartache
