

Nicotine

Lakeside X

There ain't no light before me
Now all the ways are almost fatal
The endless night I can't deny
There ain't no sake to be faithful

Waiting on the scene, nicotine
Dreaming all my dreams, my nicotine

I'm in the line of the fallen ones
My skin is a mattering wound burned from the sun
Before I make my last mistake
I really want to hear my heart breaking

Waiting on the scene, nicotine
Dreaming all my dreams, my nicotine

Tell me you are not afraid
Of the things hidden under my skin
That's like full of broken dreams
And nicotine
