

A Dream Full of Fire

Lana Lane

A hot summer rain washes away
All of the tears of yesterday
And when it is done
The afterglow
You'll finally know
Which way to go

You got a long road ahead
Horizon is calling you

A dream full of fire
Wings of desire
Oh you're on fire
It's taken you higher

A hot summer rain takes you away
Back to the hope of yesterday
And when you are there
Inside the dream
Everything's real if you believe

You got a long road ahead
Horizon is calling you

A dream full of fire
Wings of desire
Oh you're on fire
It's taken you higher
They gave you second sight
To burn up the night
