

Encore

Lana Lane

Down on main street they're standin' in line
Waitin' on a moment frozen in time
Doors are open the feeling inside
Hangin' in illusion the ultimate high

Soft is the light as the curtain rises
It's your moment of truth

This is your encore (Take center stage)
One more bow (Remember)
You've waited in the shadow for so many years
But now the spotlight's on you
This is your encore

Lights in the rafters time to go on
Hang onto the moment' cause soon it is gone
Smoke in the backstage the fires alight
Never an illusion for this is your life

Soft is the light as the curtain rises
It's your moment of truth...
