

(Life Is) Only a Dream

Lana Lane

There is a light in every darkest hour
And no healing without pain
There is a seed in every dying flower
Only clouds can bring the rain

I Believe
A minute can last forever
Life is only a dream
I Believe
Under the stars together
Mirrors on the sea
I Believe

I've seen years of joy and years of sorrow
Everything good is worth the wait
Today is only yestreday's tomorrow
You're the master of your fate

I Believe a minute can last forever
Life is only a dream
I Believe, under the stars together
Mirrors on the sea
Fantasy
Is it imagination or reality?
Can't you see?
Miracles start to happen
Changing you and me
I believe

Oceans drink the water from the streams
After touching all the earth and living things
Crossing all the million miles of desert sand
You can find an oasis, there's still sacred land

There is no love without a heart that's broken
Eyes are blind but they still see
Whenever a door is closed another opens
To a place where hearts run free

I Believe a minute can last forever
Life is only a dream
I Believe, under the stars together
Mirrors on the sea
Fantasy
Is it imagination or reality?
Can't you see?
Miracles start to happen
Changing you and me
I believe
