

When You're Drunk

LANY

2 A.M., I'm wide awake
Ceiling fan, Coldplay
Haven't heard from you all day

TV light, the sound is off
I'm keepin' my fingers crossed
But all you do is put me on pause

I know, I know, if I'm bein' honest
Then maybe we should call it

Is it love
If you only ever want me when you're drunk?
If the only time you ever think of us
When you're out and had a little bit too much
Is it love?

Is it true
If you say it in the middle of the night
Or you're caught up in your feelings on a flight?
If you only ever want me when you're drunk
Is it love?

(You don't want me like I want you)
(You don't want me like I want you)

Now it's been a couple days
When I start to feel OK
Phone lights up, I see your name

I know, I know that I shouldn't pick up
But I don't wanna give up

Is it love
If you only ever want me when you're drunk?
If the only time you ever think of us
When you're out and had a little bit too much
Is it love?

Is it true
If you say it in the middle of the night
Or you're caught up in your feelings on a flight?
If you only ever want me when you're drunk
Is it love?

(You don't want me like I want you)
(You don't want me like I want you)

Is it love
If you only ever want me when you're drunk?
If the only time you ever think of us
When you're out and had a little bit too much
Is it love?

Is it true
If you say it in the middle of the night
Or you're caught up in your feelings on a flight?

If you only ever want me when you're drunk
Is it love?

(You don't want me like I want you)
(You don't want me like I want you)
