

Stacy's special means
Do not come clear to me
Stacy feels so strange
She doesn't belong here

All apologies her all apologies
Like walking without legs
She has stared me too long

I know stacy is full of fear
And dreams on that she can survive anyway
A weaker conscience is so hard to find
That one step on one step beyond

I don't like your taste
I compare it to my way
Your head is full of shit
It's running from your ears

There's not enough free space
All seats have been taken for days
And now i wish you'll get hurt and suffer for a long time

I know stacy is full of fear
And dreams on that she can survive anyway
A weaker conscience is so hard to find
That one step on one step beyond

Right now that staging in our heads
It seems so real
There's too much skin between our thoughts
And how we can finally make
A picture so clear
What album says us to say goodbye

Where is the line between true and lie
How to be sure that's the right side

I know stacy is full of fear
And dreams on that she can survive anyway
A weaker conscience is so hard to find
That one step on one step beyond
