

Lonely by Myself

Larry Norman

If i could find someone who really cared for me someone who shared my love and keep me company if i could find someone i'd let them take control and in exchange for love i'd give my very soul

It's such a lonely life
i almost cry each night cause fate had put me on the shelf i get so lonely, so lonely by myself if i could find someone who really love me right they'd make my life complete they'd make my soul shine bright i've looked around the world i've walked down every street

still i can't find no one to give me what i need

it's such a lonely life
cause fate had put me, fate has put me on the shelf
i get so lonely, so lonely by myself i get so lonely, so lonely, so lonely by myself who can i turn to is there anybody there

doesn't anybody care
doesn't anybody listen
