Full Moon

Last Tribe

Another sleepless night went by Left me no memories Where have I been What have I done I need to know

Watching the mirror terrified I can't believe my eyes A stranger covered up in blood It just can't be me It can't be me

No one knows my secret
No one out there can believe me
Hiding in the shadows
Hiding from the world
That feeds me

The dark is falling here
I hope there is no one near
I start to change into
Someone else
The haunt has began

It is nothing but the full moon Keeping me awake Touches my evil senses The full moon puts your Life at stake You can't escape my hunger

All dressed up in anger
Try to find my running
Victims neck
The hunger keeps me going
I won't rest until
I get my hands on you

The dark is falling here
I hope there is no one near
I start to change into
Someone else
The haunt has began

It is nothing but the full moon Keeping me awake Touches my evil senses The full moon puts your Life at stake You can't escape my hunger

Another sleepless night went by Left me no memories Where have I been what have I done I need to know It is nothing but the full moon Keeping me awake Touches my evil senses
The full moon puts your Life at stake
You can't escape my hunger
