

Bathroom Gurgle

Late of the Pier

We have all been wasting our time
For sunlight
There's only so much we'll take
Far from the only live brown ocean

She was only bidding her time
Falling down
Working 9 to 5 in her store
Wasting ti-i-i-meeee

There's only so much we'll take
Far from the only live brown ocean

Find yourself a new boy
Find yourself a new boy, boy
Find yourself a new boy

I was in love, but I hardly knew what i had 'till I found her and told you.
I only know I wanna hold her too. Wah hoo yeh!
All alone my heart would say "Want a hand? What ya found? Just don't know you.
I only know I wanna hold her too.

So put your hands on your waistline
And move you body to the bassline
And get your hands on some cheap wine
And get out, a get out like a motherfucking trout
So put your hands on your waistline
And move you body to the bassline
And get your hands on some cheap wine
And just-a move it 'til you feel fine.

I was in love, but I hardly knew what i had 'till I
found her and told you.
I only know I wanna hold her too. Wah hoo yeh!
All alone my heart would say "Want a hand? What ya found? Just don't know you.
I only know I wanna hold her too.

So put your hands on your waistline
And move you body to the bassline
And get your hands on some cheap wine
And get out, a get out like a motherfucking trout

Ooooh ooh ooh
Oh! Oh! Oh! Ohhh!
