

Something to Believe In

Laura Marano

Surely this is the end for us
We fell too hard
We lost too much
Surely love is not enough
With run-down hearts
Our time is up

Oooh
The door was almost closed
You didn't let me go (No)
Oooh
We were hanging by a thread
But you made me feel again

When my hope ran low
And my heart beat slow
Nothing left
You gave me
Something to believe
When our stars burned out
And our skies came down
Nothing left
You gave me
Something to believe in

Surely trust is all we've got
Will you break my fall
Will you hold me up
Surely scars were meant to fade
Will you still love me
If they stay

Oooh
The door was almost closed
You didn't let me go (No)
Oooh
We were hanging by a thread
But you made me feel again

When my hope ran low
And my heart beat slow
You gave me
Something to believe
When our stars burned out
And our skies came down
You gave me
Something to believe in

Mmm, Mmm (ooh)
You gave me
Something to believe in
Mmm, Mmm (ooh)

When my hope ran low
And my heart beat slow

You gave me
Something to believe (ahh)
When our stars burned out
And our skies came down (came down)
Nothing left (No)
You gave me
Something to believe

When my hope ran low
And my heart beat slow
You gave me
Something to believe (something)
When our stars burned out
And our skies came down
You gave me
Something to believe in

Mmm, Mmm (yeah you gave me)
You gave me
Something to believe in (Something)
Mmm, Mmm (ooh)
You gave me
Something to believe in

(Oooh, mm)
