

Strange

Laura Marling

I know you love your children
I know you love your wife
I know you set yourself up
For the simple life

You get it all and you realise you haven't opened up your eyes
Since you were young
And it's so bright

When you try to take it all in and realise you can't begin again
You wonder how you keep movin

I can offer you so little help
But just accept the hands you've been dealt
Do your best to be a good man

Do you know how hard that is
Do you know how
Strange life can be

Well you love me and I know that
We can't let a precious thing go
I don't love you like you love me
I'm pretty sure that you know

Just try and bring meaning to all things
And when you try to take it in
No one wants to be alone
But should you fall in love with me
Your love becomes my responsibility
And I can never do you wrong

Do you know how hard that is
Do you know how
Strange I love you
Hurts

No I do not believe we were born equally
Wanna know what I see?
Those who do good will be treated accordingly

I know you love your children
I know you love your wife
I know you set yourself up
To live the simple life

You've got it all and you realise
You haven't opened up those eyes
Since you were young
And it's so bright

But if you try to take it all in
and realise you can't begin again

You must keep movin

I can offer you so little help
But just accept the hands you've been dealt
And do your best to be a good man

Do you know how hard that is
Yes I know how Strange life can be
