

Majesty

Laura Story

Great I am
Holy Lord
Who angels bow to adore

Sovereign King
Hallowed Trinity
What is man to stand before

Your Majesty, Your Grace Divine
The fullness my soul thirst to find
May all I am be lost in the depths
Of who You are
That I may know life true
O majesty

Like Moses still
On that holy hill
Your radiance on his face
O may I behold
So rich a taste
Of Your glory that awaits

Your Majesty, Your Grace Divine
The fullness my soul thirst to find
May all I am be lost in the depths
Of who You are
That I may know life true
O majesty

So still my heart, fix my gaze
On Your presence reigning in this place
That all these lips could humbly dare to speak
"More of You and less of me"

Majesty
The fullness my soul thirst to find
May all I am be lost in the depths
Of who You are
That I may know life true
That I may know life true
O majesty
O majesty
