Black-Eyed Susan

Laura Veirs

Twenty days walking so lonely and talking to myself and the roc ks

And sand got me to thinking 'bout going and drinking in a taver n with a clean-shaven man

Just when i thought all souls had been bought by the devil here long ago

There did i see when i knelt to my knee i little texas flower g row

Black-

eyed susan by the roadside blooming all yellow like sunshine Red like wine flower like you in a desert this cruel my my you're a rare rare find

Well my newfound friend gave my heart a mend i sang her songs o f my wayward ways

When day turned to night in the crystal moonlight i confirmed h er unwavering gaze

As the days unraveled i stayed in the gravel and susan kept her eye on me

With my eye on her i felt my heart all astir with the joy of ca maraderie

Black-

eyed susan by the roadside blooming all yellow like sunshine Red like wine flower like you in a desert this cruel my my you're a rare rare find
