

Betrayal

Laura Welsh

I want to learn to love this feeling
Now that I've wasted all this time
I can't relate to what I'm missing
Now I've got betrayal on my mind

I've seen heaven in love
Heaven in life
But I was stupid enough to believe I was right
All the nails in my heart have rusted inside
But all along I've tried

And now
This race has run
And now I need to learn learn learn
To let you leave
To let you run into the fire
To make me breath
Until you come and wake the liars
I know my heart can never stop as I let go
I only wanted you to let me know

I want to learn to love this feeling
Now that I've wasted all your time
Can't you relate to what you're missing
Cus I've got redemption on my mind

I've seen heaven in love
Heaven in life
But I was stupid enough to believe I was right
All the nails in my heart have rusted inside
But all along I've tried

And now
This race has run
And now I need to learn learn learn
To let you leave
To let you run into the fire
To make me breath
Until you come and wake the liars
I know my heart can never stop as I let go
I only wanted you to let me know
