

Best Friend

Lauren Aquilina

Zero to one hundred
Slam the door without saying goodbye
I'll leave mine wide open
And just put my own problems aside

But the ice was always thinner
Than the papers on the table
I was wrapped around your finger
And you knew it, you knew it

Yeah, you taught me to smoke cigarettes
Now you're teaching me how hard it is to forget
Someone you thought you'd know 'till the end
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
Nobody breaks my heart

'Course I fucking miss you
Really thought we were sisters, but now
I just have to make more time for People who don't only let me down
Don't know why you stopped communicating
I know your girlfriend, and she kinda hates me oh
I don't wanna keep on chasing, oh

Yeah, you taught me to smoke cigarettes
Now you're teaching me how hard it is to forget
Someone you thought you'd know 'till the end
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
Nobody breaks my heart

(Zero to one hundred)
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
('Course I fucking miss you)
Nobody breaks my heart
(Zero to one hundred)
Nobody breaks my heart like my best friend
('Course I fucking miss you)
Nobody breaks my heart
