

Die for You

Lawson

I can't believe that it hurts, cause it hurts when I breathe
And she closes the door as she leaves, from my life.
And I've told you before, when you break, you can't break anymore,
But you left with the dead on the floor tonight.

Now I'm standing on the edge of us, but I won't look down.

As I dive from the rooftops, screaming your name, get close to the concrete,
Baby you'll know it's true. Baby I'd die for you.
As I fly through the air, in the corner of my eye, I see your face in the crowd.
Got nothing else left to prove. I told you I'd die for you.
Baby I'd die for you.

It's okay, carry on. You don't know what you've got till it's gone.
Maybe you'll be the lonely one, next time.
And I'll always believe, that the love that you gave, you received
But you will never be alone with me again.

Now I'm standing on the edge of us, but I won't look down.

As I dive from the rooftops, screaming your name, get close to the concrete,
Baby you'll know it's true. Baby I'd die for you.
As I fly through the air, in the corner of my eye, I see your face in the crowd.
Got nothing else left to prove. I told you I'd die for you.
Baby I'd die for you.

Oh, Oh. Baby I'd die for you
Oh, Oh. Baby I'd die for you

As I dive from the rooftops, screaming your name, get close to the concrete,
Baby you'll know it's true. Baby I'd die for you.
As I fly through the air, in the corner of my eye, I see your face in the crowd.
Got nothing else left to prove. I told you I'd die for you.
Baby I'd die for you.

I can't believe that it hurts, cause it hurts when I breathe...
