

Getting Nowhere

Lawson

I'm out of fuel, and slowly breaking down.
You made a choice and you don't want me now.
And I can't believe, I try to speak but I can't make a sound.
I pretend it's not over, but breaking up has never been this hard.
Still I'm moving slower but she is running faster every hour.

Tired of feeling like I'm just getting nowhere.
And all the signs are saying she don't want me near.
Can't let you go, you must still feel something somewhere.
Don't say that love has gone.

Can't fight it, can't hide it, I'm getting nowhere.
So hopeless, can't deny it, I'm getting nowhere.
I'm getting nowhere.

This road is long and I'm so far from home.
She missed my calls, can't seem to answer her phone.
I can't believe, I can't make this journey on my own.
Did my best to tell her, but she won't let me back into her arms.
I don't wanna lose her but I won't win this fight with her anymore.

Tired of feeling like I'm just getting nowhere.
And all the signs are saying she don't want me near.
Can't let you go, you must still feel something somewhere.
Don't say that love has gone.

Can't fight it, can't hide it, I'm getting nowhere.
So hopeless, can't deny it, I'm getting nowhere.
I'm getting nowhere.

Tired of feeling like I'm just getting nowhere.
And all the signs are saying she don't want me near.
Can't let you go, you must still feel something somewhere.
Don't say that love has gone.

Can't fight it, can't hide it, I'm getting nowhere.
So hopeless, can't deny it, I'm getting nowhere.
I'm getting nowhere.
