Lay with me on a street in the city Find the still in the middle of crazy Is this all that you wanted?

Just a leaf floating round in the shadows Holding on tryna find out how to let go When you think you got all that you wanted

Feel the ground shaking Slowly we are waking up

There's a red sky
Overhead tonight
That's how I know
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright

There's a pier reaching out from the seaside Breathe it in, breathe it out, open your eyes Is this all that you wanted?

Feel the waves breaking No more time wasting Slowly we are waking up

There's a red sky
Overhead tonight
That's how I know
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright

Beautiful wonder
Where did you come from?
Writing your name on the horizon
Filling the sky up
Burning like fire

There's a red sky
Overhead tonight
That's how I know
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright
It's gonna be alright

It's gonna be alright

Yeah
