

Murder Instinct

Lay Down Rotten

I come closer to you,
you can't imagine,
I'm watching you,
you won't feel my breath.

I wait for the perfect moment and you dont know what will happen to you.
I slam you down with all my force, I have to kill you (it will happen).

In my dreams I see what I've and when I awake - I feel no remorse, this is my unbreakable circle of life.

I wait for the perfect moment and you dont know what will happen to you.
I slam you down with all my force, I have to kill you (it will happen).

This is my murder instinct, I can't control it.
This is my murder instinct, I can't suppress it.

Blood - it's running down my hands.
Blood - covers me red.
Blood - I have done it.
Blood - That was your destiny
