

In The Palm Of Your Hands

Leah

Souls scream out
Into the void of their hearts
Eyes circle
To accuse who we are

I'm gonna stand in the heat of the fire
Swim to the depths of the sea
I will fall into the palm of your hand

Skies rain down
As the heavens cry aloud
Thunder echoes
Awakening the sons and cosmos
For it's crown

I'm gonna stand in the heat of the fire
Swim to the depths of the sea
I will fall into the palm of your hand

I will stand though I'm weak and broken
March to the gates of hell
I will trust in the timing of this dance

I will trust, I will triumph
In the darkest hour
I will laugh, I will dance
As the shadows cower

Souls scream out
Into the void of their hearts
