

Deep Green Beautiful Levelling

Leatherface

Perfume can't hide how you feel if you feel like me
They're no part of the most beautiful thing I've ever seen
When there's only so much room inside of me
Like a bin I sometimes need an emptying too
And it's so much bigger than me when the deep green beautiful levelling
Of everything I've seen it washes away
Everything that I would ever say that I cling to Sometimes the lemmings make sense such total sense
Well I'm a pale of water that only just learned
To walk on the land and found the earth
As flat as it as it once seemed as it has always been
And it's so much bigger than me when this deep green beautiful levelling
Of everything I see it washes away
Everything that I would ever say that I cling to
And with water in front of me and behind me just these green fields
And how loud it can be reassures me you can't take the Ground from under me under me
Adhere to flat earth because I have to
And then I bide my time it's called my life
And I feel deep blue beautiful levelling
Of everything that I cling to
It's so much bigger than me when this deep green beautiful levelling
Of everything I see it washes away
Every sin I would ever say that I cling to It's so much bigger than me and everything that I cling to
