

Eddy Bumble

Leatherface

Well he was in awe of her and so were we all and dreams of mighty Beanstalks were better than than any shiftwork and the puzzling part
Was the surly menace of those prefect lips of yours
Learn to listen before you talk
Before you walk before you before you learn
Learn before you
I feel like the bumble bee impossible in theory
And that never stopped him his life is simply full of meaning
The smell of old towels it rubs off on you even in your new bat hrooms
Learn to learn to talk before you walk
Learn to listen learn
Learn to walk learn to talk before you
I feel like a bumble bee it's impossible in theory
But that never stopped him his life is simply full of meaning
And that smell of old towels it rubs off on you even in your ba throoms
Learn to walk before you learn to talk
Learn to walk before you Learn to listen before you talk even learn to Learn to walk before you talk learn to listen
