

The Grail

Leatherwolf

Imagination spills and past distortions I'll Fictitious memories make up realities
Is it true that I've lost my mind
Gone without a trace
Last thing I remember was ashes and flames
Cold blood runs through my veins
I've got to be contained
The grail is dragging me back from the grave
Yeah!

The hands of time are gripping on my face
Bound and tied onto my yesterdays
Living in the madness deep within my soul
Chilling tortures ripping at me throat
Yeah!

Black angels open up their thousand eyes
Snaps the spine and hell unloads
No rest 'til they find you, you know the day will come
Can't awaken from this nightmare it's just begun

Who's on your side on your side
Where's the poor fool now
And the hero slips away

Remembering a dream I had
The killing of a soul
Following a twisted path
The only one he knows
Cover me, cover me
