

For Amelie

Leaves' Eyes

For Amelie
Why don't you feel me
Why can't I hold your hand
(You) never said that you'd leave me
and I know you are somewhere
I held you up
Every time you were down
Your crying stopped
When I was around...but...
Why don't you love me?
Enough to stay with me
Now tell me truly
Was it there in your heart too?
All that I'm left with
Is a dream of me and you
You filled my soul
With your beauty and with hope
We're different although
We were just like water in sand
Why don't you feel me
Why cant I hold your hand
You never said that you'd leave me
And I know you are somewhere
I held you close
When you fell to the ground
And now you've torn all my hope apart
You could have said good-bye
