For Amelie

For Amelie Why don't you feel me Why can't I hold your hand (You) never said that you'd leave me and I know you are somewhere I held you up Every time you were down Your crying stopped When I was around...but... Why don't you love me? Enough to stay with me Now tell me truly Was it there in your heart too? All that I'm left with Is a dream of me and you You filled my soul With your beauty and with hope We're different although We were just like water in sand Why don't you feel me Why cant I hold your hand You never said that you'd leave me And I know you are somewhere I held you close When you fell to the ground And now you've torn all my hope apart You could have said good-bye
