

Leaves Whisper

Leaves' Eyes

Tell me now haven't you heard the leaves whisper?
Secrets of heaven and earth and of a thousand springs
Follow the wind and the storm at their command
Sigh, hear the sigh of the waves and the grass shiver

Haven't you heard (Mm)
What the leaves whisper? (Leaves whisper)
We've been seeking the truth the ancient songs of man

Tell me why haven't you felt the rain dripping?
Falling from heaven on earth and makes life flow
Watching the growing of grass and lakes smiling
Witness the noon of the night and skies dwelling

Mm, tell me, haven't you heard?
Mm, what the leaves whisper now?
Mm, haven't you heard?
Mm, we are seeking the truth?

Who calls on you now? Who calls on you now?

Haven't you heard? (Mm)
What the leaves whisper?

We've been seeking the truth the ancient songs of man

Haven't you heard? (Mm)
What the leaves whisper?

We've been seeking the truth the ancient songs of man
We've been seeking the truth the ancient songs of man
