

What I Miss About Heaven

Lee Ann Womack

Mama always said love is like heaven
Holdin' hands in church and praying together
Late night talks and morning walks
But I don't remember all that innocent stuff
What I can't forget is the feel of your touch

I guess I ain't no angel, but you gave me a reason to sing
To have you back in my life again
I would trade off silver wings
So forgive me for the cold hard truth
The only thing about heaven I miss is you

We run out of time and things to say
But I'd find any ole' excuse to make you stay
One little thing we did just right
Now it takes all night to shake you from my memory
I toss and turn all night tryin' to shake your memory
I guess I ain't no angel, but you gave me a reason to sing
To have you back in my life again
I would trade off silver wings
So forgive me for the cold hard truth
The only thing about heaven I miss is you

The only thing about heaven I miss is the backseat, summer night,
Held tight kiss
I ain't ashamed to admit that this is the only thing I miss

The only thing about heaven I miss is the backseat, summer night,
Held tight kiss
I ain't ashamed to admit that this is the only thing I miss

I guess I ain't no angel, but you gave me a reason to sing
To have you back in my life again
I would trade off silver wings
So forgive me for the cold hard truth
The only thing about heaven I miss

The only thing about heaven I miss

The only thing about heaven
I miss is you
Is you