

What Chu Want

Lee Carr

Baby, listen up to what I'm not... stand
It drives me crazy, to know that you deserve something better, oh
Girl what you need?
Someone who's gonna be
Your on your everything
Someone that knows love is more than a shopping spree
Someone to love you right, won't leave you home at night
And baby I can do you better

[Chorus]

I can show you what it's sposed to be
I know what chu want
I know what chu want
Girl you need a man like me
I know what chu want
Cause I know what chu want
What you need

Sexy, he don't know just what it's happen, no no
And girl I'd gladly, take over cause he ain't the one, no
Girl what you need?
Someone who's gonna be
Your on your everything

Someone that knows love is more than a shopping spree
Someone to love you right, won't leave you home at night
And baby I can love you better

[Chorus] X 2

I can show you what it's sposed to be
I know what chu want
I know what chu want
Girl you need a man like me
I know what chu want
Cause I know what chu want
What you need

So wassup baby, I know he's acting...
It's over here, so come get it
I have everything you need

I ain't tryna tell you, to leave him
But baby, if that's what you want
You don't have to settle
I'll be right here waiting
Whenever you're tired, of being alone

[Chorus] X 2
