

Lonely Hearts

Lee DeWyze

Carry on like no one else is here, else is here
Time is all we fear, running
All along if you only take your time
Take your time
Look around and you will find, something

You want it? Here, have it all
We build it, just to watch it fall

Lonely hearts are broken everyday, everyday
That's just how we play, with it
In the end oh everything will change
Things will change
Wake up so you're not missing

You want it? Here take it all
We build it, to watch it fall

Then again, we are all the same, all the same
Different faces, different names

You want it? Here have it all
We build it, to watch it fall