

One More Shot

Lee Rocker

I got a song that I need to sing
And I got a bell that I got to ring (oh, ring it)
I got a whole lotta things I gotta do
But I gotta have one more shot at lovin' you

I got words that I need to say
I gotta live just a few more days (I know you will)
As long as I'm breathing baby I am through
But I gotta have one more shot at lovin' you

One more shot
One more shot
One more shot
At lovin' you

I thought I had a chance, you let it get away
Now don't tell me you should come to stay
If we could start all over baby I know that I'll be true
But I gotta have one more shot at lovin' you

When the river is up and the bridge is out
Now I know what living is about
You know I can do better baby, that's what I'm gonna do
But I gotta have one more shot at lovin' you

One more shot
One more shot
One more shot
At lovin' you

One more shot
One more shot
One more shot
At lovin' you

One more shot
One more shot
One more shot
At lovin' you
