

Don't Want You Back

Leela James

Two o'clock in the morning
You on my phone trying to talk to me
Saying that you want me back
You need me back and you should have never left me
There you go
Talking that shh
Same old shh
Don't want to hear that shh no
I remember when you had me
You treated me bad, you treated me badly

You had a good thing
And you let it go
And now you wanna try to come back no
No
I will never take you back
No
It's funny how you try to come back
No
It's too late, I've moved on
And I don't want you back

I don't want your love
I don't need your love

I don't want your love
You can keep your love
Because someone else is living here
Someone else is saying my name Baby
He's cooking me breakfast wining dining flowers for no reason
He's doing what he's supposed to do
It could've been you

You had a good thing
And you let it go
And now you wanna try to come back but no
Now you want to come back
I will never take you back
Now I don't want you anymore
No
It's funny how you try to come back
But you did me wrong
It's too late, I've moved on
And I don't want you back

I was so good to you
But it wasn't enough and now I'm through with you
You didn't appreciate me
Funny how you do now but it's too late
It's too late
I've moved on

I don't want your love

Now you want to try to come back

But no
I would never take you back
No
To me
It's too late, I've moved on and
I don't want you back
You did me wrong
